Approved For Release 2007/07/05: CIA-RDP99-00498R000100020032-7

ARTICLE APPEARED ON PAGE 4

LOS ANGELES HERALD*EXAMINER 30 November 1976

Bush Bites Tongue on CIA Budget

SACRAMENTO (AP) CIA Director George Bush said Monday that he will never reveal the full budget of his agency to the public, but that he is reporting fully to Con-

Bush also told 700 guests at a businessmen's luncheon that he does not expect President-elect Jimmy Carter to make any radical change in the Central Intelligence Agency.

Bush told Sacramento's

Comstock Club that the CIA reports to seven committees

President, how much money tration oversight agencies the CIA spends," Bush said. The rest of the budget is the CIA spends," Bush said. The rest of the budget is "Every single penny of the spent on intelligence-gather-details of our intelligence and still have an intelligence capability that's meaningful," he added

GEORGE BUSH

He said less than two per of Congress, and "that's ade- cent of the CIA budget is quate oversight." spent on covert activities, and spent on covert activities, and spent on covert activities, and that those activities are now that nobody knows, except for approved in advance by both the director and maybe the congressional and adminis-

CIA budget is reported to the ing about nuclear proliferaproper committees of Con- tion and other military subgress. And they're not going jects, international drug traf-to be, as long as I'm director, fic, terrorism and other subreported to the people, jects on which the govern-because I don't believe that ment must be informed, Bush you can lay out innermost said swas fall so the said